

§ 1202.70 Appeal of denial of request to amend a record.

(a) A requester who disagrees with a denial of a request to amend a record may file an appeal of that denial.

(1) If the denial was signed by the Assistant Archivist for Management and Administration, the requester shall address the appeal to the NARA Privacy Act Appeal Official (ND), Washington, DC 20408.

(2) If the denial was signed by the Inspector General, the requester shall address the appeal to the NARA Privacy Act Appeal Official (N), Washington, DC 20408.

(3) If the requester is an employee of NARA and the denial to amend involves a record maintained in the employee's Official Personnel Folder, as described in chapter 293 of the Federal Personnel Manual, the appeal should be addressed to the Assistant Director, Workforce Information Office, Compliance and Investigations Group, Office of Personnel Management, 1900 E Street, NW., Washington, DC 20415.

(b) Each appeal to the NARA Privacy Act appeal official shall be in writing and must be received no later than 30 calendar days from the date of the requester's receipt of a denial of a request to amend a record. The appeal shall bear the legend "Privacy Act—Appeal," both on the face of the letter and the envelope.

(c) Upon receipt of an appeal, the NARA Privacy Act appeal official shall consult with the system manager, the official who made the denial, legal counsel, and such other officials as may be appropriate. If the NARA Privacy Act appeal official, in consultation with these officials, determines that the record should be amended as requested, he or she immediately shall instruct the system manager to amend the record in accordance with § 1202.64 and shall notify the requester of that action.

(d) If the NARA Privacy Act appeal official, in consultation with the officials specified in paragraph (c) of this section, determines that the appeal should be rejected, the NARA Privacy Act appeal official immediately shall notify the requester in writing of that determination. This action shall constitute the NARA final determination on the request to amend the record and shall include:

(1) The reasons for the rejection of the appeal;

(2) Proposed alternative amendments, if appropriate, which the requester subsequently may accept in accordance with § 1202.68;

(3) Notice of the requester's right to file a Statement of Disagreement for distribution in accordance with § 1202.72; and

(4) Notice of the requester's right to seek judicial review of the NARA final determination, as provided in § 1202.74.

(e) The NARA final determination shall be made no later than 30 workdays from the date on which the appeal is received by the NARA Privacy Act appeal official. In extraordinary circumstances, the NARA Privacy Act appeal official may extend this time limit by notifying the requester in writing before the expiration of the 30 workdays. The NARA Privacy Act appeal official's notification shall include a justification for the extension of time.

[50 FR 27197, July 1, 1985, as amended at 54 FR 32068, Aug. 4, 1989]

§ 1202.72 Statements of disagreement.

Upon receipt of a NARA final determination denying a request to amend a record, the requester may file a Statement of Disagreement with the appropriate system manager. The Statement of Disagreement shall include an explanation of why the requester believes the record to be inaccurate, irrelevant, untimely, or incomplete. The system manager shall maintain the Statement of Disagreement in conjunction with the pertinent record and shall include a copy of the Statement of Disagreement in any disclosure of the pertinent record. The system manager shall provide a copy of the Statement of Disagreement to any person or agency to whom the record has been disclosed only if the disclosure was subject to the accounting requirements of § 1202.34.

§ 1202.74 Judicial review.

Within 2 years of receipt of a NARA final determination as provided in § 1202.48 or § 1202.70, a requester may seek judicial review of that determination. A civil action must be filed in the
